

C8 Mathematical Physics: Dynamics and Nonlinear Evolution Equations in General Relativity

The aim of this project is a systematic understanding of the interplay between geometry and specific partial differential equations, which are central to applications in general relativity and string theory. We apply geometric methods and aim at a global understanding of longtime dynamical behaviour as well as a description of the singularity structure of the solutions for these types of equations.